I. PHILOSOPHY

Predicated on the rigorous pursuit of liberal learning and the teachings of the Christian faith, the Presbyterian College and the School of Pharmacy communities are dedicated to integrity in the pursuit of truth and honor in the building of community. As members of these communities, we share a common commitment to maintaining the high standards of honesty and honorable conduct required for this pursuit.

Since 1915, Presbyterian College’s commitment has been realized in our agreement to live under the Honor Code of the College. As this Code is student maintained, our agreement contains two parts: first, that we personally adopt the standards of conduct as stated in the Honor Code; and second, that we deal responsibly with those of our peers who fail to do so. By holding one another accountable to this commitment, we ensure the integrity of our academic program and community.

Our acceptance of this commitment allows us to enjoy an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect among students, faculty, and administration. The academic and social advantages therein are many: as students, we are trusted to work independently; exams may be taken free of supervision; computer labs are available twenty-four hours a day; personal property is generally safe on campus; and one’s word may be considered trustworthy, both on and off campus. It is our shared interest in preserving this atmosphere that motivates our commitment to the Honor Code.

However, privilege requires responsibility. We at Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy are responsible for knowing the purpose, design, and procedures of our Honor Code and are required to exhibit honorable conduct in all areas of life: social as well as academic, off campus as well as on. It is solely through the consistency of this commitment that we may both trust and be trusted, respect and be respected, regardless of place or circumstance. Therefore, each of us is expected to maintain the integrity of that commitment at all times.

When we join the Presbyterian College and School of Pharmacy communities, we sign the Roll of Honor and formally enroll under the pledge:

“On my honor, I will abstain from all deceit. I will neither give nor receive unacknowledged aid in my academic work, nor will I permit such action by any member of this community. I will respect the persons and property of the community and will not condone discourteous or dishonest treatment of these by my peers. In my every act, I will seek to maintain a high standard of honesty and truthfulness for myself and for the College.”
II. THE HONOR CODE

Each student enrolled in the School of Pharmacy of Presbyterian College is expected to be academically honest in his/her learning and presentation of information to School of Pharmacy faculty members and their peers. The expectation of being honest includes all aspects of academic work, including but not limited to the completion of written and/or oral examinations, assignments, and presentations. Appropriate references and citations should be supplied for all information that is not the student’s original work – including evaluation, interpretation, or summary of prior work done by another.

Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy students pledge to abstain from all deceit and dishonorable conduct. Though many acts may at times be considered deceitful or dishonorable, students at Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy agree that lying, cheating, plagiarism, stealing, and failure to enforce the Honor Code are by definition dishonorable and are, therefore, always in violation of the Honor Code.

A. Honor Code Violations

1. Lying is defined as any attempt to deceive, falsify, or misrepresent the truth. Lying includes but is not limited to:
   - Falsifying or altering academic records.
   - Falsifying or altering clinical reports and/or other patient related notations.
   - Submission of modified or changed tests, answer sheets, or assignments for re-grading

2. Cheating is defined as the employment of or rendering of any unacknowledged or disallowed aid in any assigned work. Cheating includes but is not limited to:
   - Unapproved or unauthorized sharing/collaboration or use of external information during graded assessments (e.g. test, quizzes, etc).
   - Obtaining or gaining access to items which provides an unfair advantage in a graded experience and/or requirement.
   - Falsely distributing, obtaining, using or receiving previously graded academic materials (e.g. tests, cases, etc).
   - Unauthorized or improper use of an electronic device(s) during an examination. Electronic devices include but are not limited to programmable calculators, PDA’s, computers, computer programs, mobile phones, iPods, etc.
   - Misusing, defacing, or tampering with academic resources or materials.
   - Assisting a fellow student in committing an act of cheating or dishonesty.
3. Plagiarism is defined as the presentation of the words or ideas of another person as one’s own. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to:
   - The use of any commercial term paper preparation service.
   - Copying internet or electronic database sources for term papers, journal clubs, or case presentations.
   - Submission of another student’s work or group work as one’s individual effort.

4. Stealing is defined as the appropriation of money or property belonging to another person, organization, the School of Pharmacy or the College or the borrowing of such property without the knowledge and permission of the owner.

5. Failure to enforce the Honor Code is defined as any act of omission that permits violations of the Honor Code to occur or to go unreported.

   All students enrolling at Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy are bound not only to abstain from the above, but also to report such acts committed by fellow students. When events of a questionable nature occur, it is the responsibility of each student to promptly communicate that information to the Honor Council. Determining whether or not a violation of the Honor Code has occurred is the responsibility of the Honor Council. Failing to report such events amounts to the toleration of dishonor in the community and shall itself be considered a violation of the Honor Code.

B. Pledged Work

   All academic work at Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy falls under the Honor Code. Quizzes, tests, examinations, projects, and papers to be graded are governed by and should be accompanied by the pledge:

   “On my honor, I pledge that I have neither given nor received any unacknowledged aid on this assignment.”

This pledge is followed by an act of student acknowledgement, usually a signature. Unacknowledged aid includes aid that is not allowed by the instructor.

C. Honor Code Penalties

   The normal penalty for a first violation of the Honor Code is immediate suspension for the remainder of the current semester and for one additional semester. The student will be ineligible to earn academic credit for the equivalent of two full academic semesters no matter when the violation took place. If the violation involves cheating, plagiarism, or lying to gain academic advantage in a course, a grade of “F” will be imposed in that course and withdrawals will be assigned in all other courses.

The normal penalty for a second violation of the Honor Code is immediate and permanent expulsion from the School of Pharmacy.

III. THE HONOR COUNCIL

A. Responsibilities

The Pharmacy Honor Council is charged with investigating and hearing alleged violations of the Honor Code and determining whether violations have occurred. Upon determining such violations, the Council is empowered to impose appropriate sanctions, up to and including expulsion from the School of Pharmacy and College. The Pharmacy Honor Council reserves the right to refer certain cases to the Office of Professional and Student Affairs.

The Honor Council is also responsible for assisting in the education of new students concerning the Honor Code and in the annual publication of the Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy (PCSP) Blue Book. Every three years, the Pharmacy Honor Council, with the assistance of the Ethics, Honor, and Professionalism Committee and the Dean of the School, shall conduct a full review of the Code, recommending reforms appropriate for its upkeep. The revisions will be accepted upon the approval of the Pharmacy Student Governance Association; the Ethics, Honor, and Professionalism Committee; the Faculty, and the Dean of the School.

B. Membership

The Honor Council of the School of Pharmacy will be composed of no fewer than 20 student members with a minimum of 2 members from each class. Each fall, the Pharmacy Honor Council will solicit applications for Council membership (due by November 1); new members will be appointed by the Pharmacy Honor Council Executive Committee. Students will typically begin membership at the start of classes each January, but new members may apply to fill vacancies for a given semester. Student members of the Pharmacy Honor Council normally serve until the end of their fourth professional year and are expected to remain on campus through exams each semester during professional years 1–3 for hearings.

The Executive Committee of the Pharmacy Honor Council of the School of Pharmacy shall consist of the Pharmacy Honor Council Chair, Assistant Chair, student Secretary, and Faculty Coordinator with the School of Pharmacy Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs serving as advisors. The offices of Chair, Assistant Chair, and Secretary will be elected by the Pharmacy Honor Council from the student membership and will serve a term of one year. At the end of the one-year term, the Assistant Chair will be endorsed as Chair of the Pharmacy Honor Council the following year.

The Chair of the Pharmacy Honor Council may ask for the resignation of any student member when there is evidence that his or her behavior threatens the integrity of the Council. If the member in question refuses to resign, the entire student membership of the Council shall be called to consider the matter. Nine (9) student members shall constitute a quorum, and a 2/3 vote is required to remove a student from the Council.

The Pharmacy Honor Council shall also include a minimum of 9 pharmacy faculty members, self-selected and endorsed by the Faculty of the School of Pharmacy. They shall appoint one of their members as the Chair of the Appeals Board, one as Faculty Coordinator of Honor Council hearings, and another as Secretary. The School of Pharmacy Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs are ex-officio members of the Pharmacy Honor Council.

C. Leadership

The Executive Committee of the Pharmacy Honor Council shall consist of the Pharmacy Honor Council Chair, Assistant Chair, and the student Secretary, and Faculty Coordinator of the Council with the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs serving as advisors. The Executive Committee shall conduct the initial investigation of possible code violations and is responsible for the activities of the Pharmacy Honor Council, including training Pharmacy Honor Council members and designing the orientation and education program for new students.

The Chair of the Pharmacy Honor Council shall call and preside over all meetings of the Executive Committee, hearings, and meetings of the full Council. He or she shall appoint assistants for the defense of students charged, shall coordinate the selection of members before hearings, and shall review the minutes of each hearing. The Chair of the Council must be of third-year standing with at least one year of Council experience.

The Assistant Chair shall aid in the execution of Council affairs. In the absence of the Chair, the Assistant Chair shall preside over any meeting of the Executive Committee, hearing, or full meeting of the Council. For any hearing over which he or she presides, the Assistant Chair shall also assume responsibility for appointing assistants for the defense of students charged, coordinating the selection of members before hearings, and reviewing minutes. The Assistant Chair must be of second-year standing with at least one semester of Council experience.
The student Secretary of the Pharmacy Honor Council shall be responsible for keeping minutes of hearings, for maintaining files of past hearings, for the official correspondence of the Council, and for the financial affairs of the Council. They shall also coordinate the solicitation and review of applications for membership each fall.

Elected officers shall assume their responsibilities with the installation of new members each fall.

IV. PROCEDURES

In extraordinary circumstances, the Dean of the School, at any time and in consultation with the Chair of the Pharmacy Honor Council, may find it to be in the best interest of the School to forego the usual Pharmacy Honor Council procedures. In such instances, the Dean will determine a just means for handling such extraordinary circumstances. When alternative measures are employed for the resolution of student misconduct, students shall retain the same rights otherwise granted under the Honor Code.

A. Reporting a Violation

Students who have violated the Honor Code are encouraged to self-report by contacting the Pharmacy Honor Council, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, or the Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs as appropriate.

When students, faculty members, or administrators suspect a student of having violated the Honor Code, they should encourage that student to self-report. The matter must also be brought to the attention of the Pharmacy Honor Council and to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs as appropriate, regardless of whether the suspected student reports himself or herself.

Honor Council members are prepared to consult with students who have concerns but who are uncertain how to proceed.

B. Investigations

1. Participants

The Executive Committee of the Pharmacy Honor Council and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs shall conduct preliminary investigations into reported violations. Two student members of the Committee must be present at all times to constitute a quorum, and the vote of two members is required to convene an Honor Council hearing. In the event that any of its student members are unavailable, the remaining student member(s) may appoint another Pharmacy Honor Council member to fill the necessary role on an interim basis.

2. Procedure

a. Any information received or discovered by a member of the Honor Council that would indicate a possible Honor Code violation must be communicated immediately to the Chair, or in the absence of the Chair, to the Assistant Chair.

b. Immediately upon receipt of such information by the Executive Committee, an investigative team may be appointed from the Pharmacy Honor Council membership. This team, composed of one or two student Pharmacy Honor Council members, shall act as a neutral agent, gathering what information is available concerning the possible violation and reporting to the Executive Committee.

c. Upon receiving the report of the investigative team, the Executive Committee will call a meeting. The purpose of this meeting shall be to determine whether a Pharmacy Honor Council hearing should be held. The accused and an appointed assistant will be given a copy of the investigative report following the Executive Meeting.

   (i) Should the Committee find the information sufficient to merit a hearing, a written statement shall be provided to the appropriate officer of the School including the student's name and the charge to be made.

   (ii) Should the Committee find the information insufficient to merit a hearing, one copy of all information pertaining to the investigation shall be kept in the Pharmacy Honor Council files for up to one year, and disclosure of the matter shall be a right reserved solely to the student(s) in question.

C. Charges

Should the Executive Committee find the information sufficient to merit a hearing before the Honor Council, the accused student shall be provided written notice of the date, place, and time of the hearing, along with a description of the violation in question. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the accused student(s), hearings shall be convened no sooner than 72 hours and no later than 10 business days following the delivery of this written notice. The Pharmacy Honor Council Executive Committee, in consultation with the Pharmacy Honor Council and the accused student(s), may grant exceptions. Requests to change the date, time, or place of the hearing shall be ruled upon by the Executive Committee.

D. Student Rights

Before proceedings take place, the Chair of the Council must be certain that any student charged understands that he or she has the following rights:

1. To be assisted in the defense by an appointed member of the Pharmacy Honor Council;

2. To be further assisted in the defense by a student of his or her choosing;

3. To call and to question witnesses; or, in extraordinary circumstances where the Executive Committee deems it necessary to shield a witness, to have witnesses questioned by way of a third party; and

4. To testify on his or her own behalf and to refuse to answer questions.

E. Hearings

Between academic semesters and during the summer months, it may be impractical for the Pharmacy Honor Council to conduct hearings. At such times, the Dean of the School, in consultation with the Chair of the Honor Council, may appoint an ad-hoc Judicial Committee, consisting of available students, faculty, and administrators. Such a committee, when employed, shall reflect as much as possible both the proportions and membership of the Pharmacy Honor Council and shall bear the same authority and responsibilities.

1. Participants
   a. In Honor Council hearings, the Chair or Assistant Chair of the Council shall preside, with one student Secretary serving to record minutes. Investigating members of the Executive Committee shall be ineligible to sit as voting members of the Council.

   b. For any hearing, the presiding officer shall arrange for six (6) member in total to be present. Five (5) student members of the Pharmacy Honor Council shall be in attendance, at least one of whom is third year standing and one of whom is second year standing, with the remaining member to be selected from any class. In addition, the Chair shall notify the coordinating faculty representative, who shall provide one (1) faculty representative for the hearing. Any member of the Council who is a witness to the possible violation or who has demonstrable bias against or toward the person charged shall be ineligible to sit on the hearing for that case.

c. The Associate Dean of Academic Affairs shall be present for all academic cases and the Assistant Dean of Professional and Student Affairs for all non-academic cases. They shall be available for consultation during hearings but shall have no vote.

d. The investigative team, which began investigating the case during the initial inquiries of the Executive Committee, shall serve during the hearing to present the facts of the case as determined during that investigation. This person or team shall introduce and summarize the circumstances of the case and may present documents, statements, and witnesses before the Council.

e. The student charged may be accompanied by his or her appointed assistant and any other student he or she may have selected to help in the defense. These assistants may speak for the student charged and may present documents, statements, and witnesses before the Council.

f. Prior to the hearing, a list of expected witnesses shall be provided to the presiding officer by each party. Witnesses shall be excluded from the hearing until called and shall be instructed by the presiding officer not to discuss the case among themselves or with anyone but (1) the person designated to present the information surrounding the offense or (2) the student’s representatives. Character witnesses are normally called during the penalty phase of the hearing but may be called earlier at the discretion of the Chair.

g. Once called during the hearing, each witness shall be sworn in and reminded by the presiding officer of his or her pledge to uphold the Honor Code of the School. Following this reminder, the calling party, the opposing party, and finally the Council itself may question the witness. When the Council is satisfied and no further questions are forthcoming, the witness shall be dismissed from the hearing room.

h. The presiding officer is responsible for maintaining order in the hearing. In the interest of time, he or she may limit the number of witnesses called by either party and may rule that certain information or testimony is irrelevant to the case at hand. He or she shall also rule on requests for recess. Decisions made by the presiding officer may be overturned by majority vote of the Council.
i. Hearings shall be closed to the public, unless the student charged makes a written request for an open hearing twenty-four (24) hours prior to the set date and time. In the event of an open hearing, the presiding officer shall have authority to impose reasonable rules for the number of non-participants in attendance and for their selection. He or she may also remove from the hearing any person whose behavior proves distracting or inappropriate.

2. Procedure Finding Phase

a. To begin each hearing, the presiding officer shall read the specification of the charge aloud and shall verify that the student charged received notification at least seventy-two (72) hours in advance of the hearing. The student charged shall then be asked to declare whether he or she did or did not violate the Honor Code.

b. If it is declared by the student that he or she did violate the Honor Code, the presiding officer shall move immediately to the procedures for the penalty phase of the hearing.

c. If it is declared by the student that he or she did not violate the Honor Code, the presiding officer shall recognize the investigation team selected for the case. This team shall begin by introducing the circumstances of the case and may at this time submit to the Council any written statement or other relevant document. Sworn witnesses may also be called to speak in support of such information.

d. Following the presentation of witnesses by the investigative team, the presiding officer shall recognize the student charged. The student or the student’s representatives may then make an introductory statement, present relevant documents, and call witnesses to support his or her declaration.

e. Following the presentation of witnesses by the student charged, the presiding officer shall call for summary statements from each side, beginning with the statement of the student charged. At the conclusion of these statements, all parties shall be asked to withdraw from the room so that deliberations of the Council may begin. Deliberations shall be closed to all but voting members of the Council with the exception of the presiding officer and the recording secretary.

f. The presiding officer shall instruct the Council that its decision must be based solely upon the information received during the hearing. Discussion may then take place. If the Council feels that more information is required, deliberations may be temporarily adjourned, and the hearing reconvened for questioning of parties.
or witnesses. At the end of discussion, the presiding officer shall call for a vote by secret ballot. The votes of four (4) members of the Council shall be required in order to find that the student has violated the Honor Code.

g. Following deliberations, all parties are called back into the hearing room, and the presiding officer announces the finding.

(i) If it is found that the student has not violated the Honor Code, the case shall be closed, and all records of the hearing destroyed.

(ii) If the student is found responsible for having violated the Honor Code, the hearing shall continue into the penalty phase.

Penalty Phase

a. If it is declared by the student charged, or found by the Council through deliberation, that he or she has violated the Honor Code, then the opportunity shall be offered to make statements, present information, and call witnesses in mitigation before the Council. Character witnesses may also be called at this time.

b. Following statements, evidence, and witnesses presented by the student, the investigation team shall be called upon to present further information or to address misleading statements made in mitigation. If character has been offered as cause for mitigation, the appropriate officer of the School may also be called upon at this time to provide relevant disciplinary or academic records. After offering the student the opportunity to respond to this information, the presiding officer shall clear the room of all but voting members of the Council, and deliberations shall begin.

c. The purpose of deliberations during the penalty phase shall be to determine whether information presented in mitigation is sufficient to warrant less than the normal penalty. The Pharmacy Honor Council may deviate when in its judgment the offender understands, accepts, and can live faithfully under the Honor Code. However, personal circumstances affecting the accused that may result from the penalty shall not be considered mitigating. The presiding officer shall remind the Council that normal penalty for a first violation of the Honor Code is immediate suspension for two academic terms from the School and College and that normal penalty for a second violation is immediate and permanent expulsion from the School and College. Discussion may then take place. At the end of discussion, the presiding officer shall call for a vote by secret ballot. Four votes are required in order to deviate from the normal penalty.

(i) If the Council decides to impose the normal penalty, deliberations are adjourned.
(ii) If the Council decides to deviate from the normal penalty, it may elect to impose one of three types of penalties: (1) one-semester suspension with sanctions, (2) one-semester suspension, or (3) continued enrollment with sanctions. Discussion shall continue until a single penalty is agreed upon or until alternative penalties are designed and voted upon. Four votes shall be required for the selection of a lesser penalty.

d. Following deliberations, all parties are called back into the hearing room, and the presiding officer announces the penalty. The student is advised that he or she may appeal the finding and/or the penalty to the Appeals Board, and the hearing is then adjourned. In the absence of an appeal, the accused is informed by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs or Assistant Dean of Professional and Student Affairs when and how the penalty is to be carried out.

In the event of a suspension or expulsion, school, tuition and fees may be partially refunded, the amount to be based upon the proportion of days remaining in the term from the day the suspension or expulsion was initially imposed as a penalty. There will be no refund after the ninth week of the term of enrollment. The student exhausts the appeals process when the Dean upholds the Pharmacy Honor Council decision. The effective date of refund, if applicable, is the date of the final decision. The student may attend classes during the appeals process provided that he or she meets the cost of the school and fees. In the event of a suspension, a student readmitted to Presbyterian College School of Pharmacy will receive no transfer credit for coursework taken during the period of suspension.

V. THE APPEALS BOARD

A. Responsibilities

The Appeals Board will accept for consideration three types of appeal: (1) those questioning a finding of guilt, (2) those requesting a change in penalty, and (3) those citing a procedural error that may have affected the outcome of the case. Only the accused student or the investigative team may appeal a decision. Decisions that find a student not responsible for having violated the Code are not eligible for appeal.
The Appeals Board is not empowered to change the penalty imposed by the Pharmacy Honor Council. If the Board upholds a student’s appeal, the case will be remanded to the Pharmacy Honor Council. Grounds for remanding a case are left to the discretion of the Board but shall be communicated to the Pharmacy Honor Council.

B. Membership

The Appeals Board consists of three (3) faculty and two (2) student members of the Pharmacy Honor Council, none of whom participated in the original hearing of the case. The presiding officer of the Pharmacy Honor Council, the Assistant Dean of Professional and Student Affairs, and the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs are ex officio members of the Board, available for consultation, but with no vote.

Members of the Appeals Board are to be available for duty through the end of the examination period of each semester so that ad hoc Appeals Committees need not be formed. In the event an appeal must be heard between semesters or during summer months, the Dean of the School, in consultation with the Chair of the Appeals Board, may appoint an ad hoc Appeals Committee. An ad hoc Appeals Committee shall reflect as much as possible both the proportions and membership of the Appeals Board and shall bear the same authority and responsibility.

VI. PROCEDURE FOR APPEALS

A. Petition for Appeal

A petition for an appeal must be submitted in writing to the Office of Professional and Student Affairs, the Office of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, or to the Chair of the Appeals Board within 48 hours of the decision of the Pharmacy Honor Council. The petition must state the nature of the appeal (i.e., an appeal of finding, of penalty, or of procedure) and must explain its grounds. When the petition is accepted for consideration, the Chair will attempt to convene the Appeals Board within 48 hours of its acceptance.

B. Hearing of Appeals

1. Participants

a. For any appeal, the Chair of the Appeals Board shall arrange for five (5) voting members of the Council to be in attendance, consisting of three (3) faculty and two (2) student members. Any member of the Board who is a witness to the case, who was a participant in the original hearing, or who has demonstrable bias against or toward the appellant, shall be ineligible to sit on the appeal for that case.
b. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall be present for appeals in all academic cases and the Assistant Dean for Professional and Student Affairs for appeals in all non-academic cases. They shall be available for consultation by the Appeals Board but shall have no vote.

c. The presiding officer of the original Pharmacy Honor Council hearing shall be present for any appeal and shall be available for consultation by the Appeals Board but shall have no vote.

d. The accused, his or her assistants, and the investigation team will be notified of the time and place of the appeal hearing at least 24 hours in advance. These persons must appear in person before the Appeals Board.

e. Witnesses who testified at the original hearing may appear at the request of the Appeals Board. Witnesses shall be excluded from the hearing until called and once called shall be reminded of their pledge to uphold the Honor Code of the College. During appeals, witnesses are brought into the room individually as needed and may be questioned only by the Chair or members of the Board. Once the Board is satisfied and no further questions are forthcoming, witnesses shall be dismissed from the hearing room.

f. The Chair of the Appeals Board is responsible for maintaining order in the hearing of appeals. He or she shall conduct the hearing by recognizing participants who wish to address the Board or by recognizing Board members who wish to question participants or witnesses. The Chair may rule that certain information or testimony is irrelevant to the appeal at hand and shall rule on requests for recess. Decisions made by the Chair may be overturned by majority vote of the Board.

g. Hearings before the Appeals Board are closed to the public.

2. Procedure

a. After the arrival of all voting Appeals Board members and prior to calling additional parties into the room, the Chair may call the presiding officer of the Pharmacy Honor Council to present a written summary of the original case as heard before the Pharmacy Honor Council. At this time, the presiding officer of the Pharmacy Honor Council also may be asked to clarify or explain that summary.
b. Once the summary has been presented and when the Board is ready, the Chair shall call the student, his or her assistants, and the investigation team into the room. The Chair shall open the hearing by recognizing the person making the appeal, or his or her representative, for an elaboration of the argument(s) contained in the petition for appeal.

c. The Chair may then recognize other participants who wish to be heard or any Board member who wishes to ask questions of a participant or a witness. Although questioning witnesses may evoke some new testimony not heard in the original hearing, the primary purpose of such questioning shall be to clarify points of contention. However, the Appeals Board may decide that new testimony is significant enough to warrant a new hearing by the Pharmacy Honor Council. Three (3) of the five (5) votes shall be required for such a decision.

d. When members of the Appeals Board agree that all relevant information has been obtained, the Chair shall clear the room of all but voting members of the Board, and deliberations shall begin. In deliberations, the Chair may allow discussion to take place. Following discussion, a vote shall be called. Three (3) of the five (5) votes shall be required to uphold an appeal and to remand the case to the Pharmacy Honor Council.

C. Final Appeals

SCENARIO A: APPEALS BOARD DENIES THE APPEAL

If the Appeals Board denies an appeal, the accused may make a formal appeal to the Dean of the School. The Dean has the authority to: (1) allow the outcome to stand, (2) remand the case to the Pharmacy Honor Council, or (3) set aside the verdict.

If the Appeals Board denies the appeal but the Dean remands the case, the subsequent decision of the Pharmacy Honor Council may be appealed only to the Dean who then has the option to (1) allow the outcome to stand or (2) set aside the verdict.

SCENARIO B: APPEALS BOARD REMANDS THE CASE

If the Appeals Board remands the case to the Pharmacy Honor Council, the subsequent decision of the Pharmacy Honor Council may be appealed only to the Dean who then has the option to (1) allow the outcome to stand or (2) set aside the verdict.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF APPEAL

When remanding a case or setting aside a verdict, the Dean would make the grounds for that decision known to the Pharmacy Honor Council and the Appeals Board. The decision of the Dean, or of the Pharmacy Honor Council in the case of a remand, is final and shall not be reconsidered in the absence of compelling new evidence.
